

Threats

Political

Relationships with neighbor countries will deteriorate considerably

Internal conflicts in Georgia (separatist movements) will escalate

Conflicts in neighbor countries will escalate

Internal civil unrest will emerge in some form

State will encroach on civil freedoms

State will encroach on private business

Reform momentum will be lost and the processes reversed

Economic

Major trade partner countries will experience financial crisis

Macroeconomic indicators (XR, inflation) will become unstable

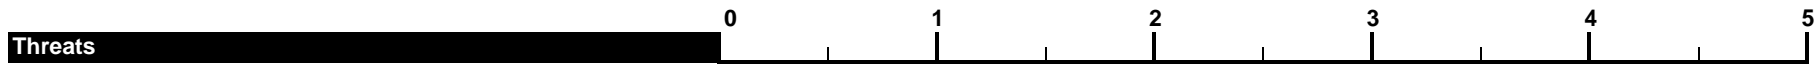

Energy supply will be monopolized by certain countries/companies

Major energy supply disruptions will be seen

EC

Certain pieces of private property will be nationalized (or alienated)

Scientific potential (know-how) will be finally eroded and lost

Digital/technological divide between Georgia and West will widen

Social

Population ageing will continue

Population will continue to diminish

Regional depopulation will continue

Brain-drain will continue

Educational reform will not bring (rapid) tangible results

